June 4, 2020

Attendees

Roll call – see list below.

Action Items

- On June 24, PNNL's Jim Follum will host a NASPI webinar on Real-Time Oscillation Analysis: Technology Readiness, and a Vision for Future Needs. Register here to take part in this webinar.
- The DNMTT Archive Survey results will be distributed to the team members for comments. Review and submit changes/comments by July 2 meeting for discussion.

Meeting Notes

- Reviewed the April 2, 2020 call notes.
- NASPI DNMTT call for papers reminder will go out again this week again to the NASPI Work Group.
- Matt presented the DNMTT Archive survey results. Teresa has agreed to format the cover of the report, inserting hi-res logo, NASPI technical number, and formatting the report if needed. Matt will work on table of contents, terms, introduction and executive summary.
- Matt presented a broad overview of the SABGANS (Synchrophasor Application-Based Guide for Archive and Network Strategies).
  - Matt will add more of an outline to the document so next time we can look at a more detail.
- Matt wants to know what people think of a DNMTT webinar series:
  - Webinar 1: Introduction to Synchrophasor data networks and archiving
    - ✓ Basics introduction to network structures – Dan Brancaccio and Matthew Rhodes
    - ✓ Summary of NASPInet – Jeff Taft
  - Webinar 2: Maintaining your Network (suggested by Dan) – Dan Brancaccio and Matthew Rhodes (utility experiences)
  - Webinar 3: Discussion of existing archive types from vendors – SEL, EPG, BPA, others
  - Webinar 4: Success stories of Advanced Synchrophasor infrastructures and Data Analytics – Dominion and PingThings
  - Success stories of Utility Network and Archive Infrastructure Standups (reserve for NASPI Work Group meeting).
  - Terry Jones suggested keeping the webinars to 1 hour. Laurel asserted that because she is new to this area, she would be supportive of this idea.
