CRSTT Update provided by Mike/Jim

- The CRSTT welcomes Cody Parker as the Task Team Co-Lead with Jim Kleitsch. Thank you Cody for taking on this responsibility.
- On track for the host a panel session NASPI spring 2022 on the use of synchrophasor/synchronized measurement data to support real time operations.
- Development of system inertia monitoring use case document. If anyone has ideas on how to jump start this, please let Jim or Cody know.
- Training updates will be provided by Mie Cassiadoro as the information becomes available.
- Looking at bringing in presentations on real time (and other) uses of the data. Would that be of value?

DisTT Update provided by Sascha

- Sascha shared with the attendee these items:
 - Distribution Synchronized Measurements Roadmap Draft Final Report by Quanta Technology (Word).
 - Distribution System Synchronized Measurement Technology Deployment Industry Roadmap (PDF).
 - Google Docs link to comments and feedback to the above report: <https://docs.google.com/document/d/1wu5WaMgDI1VNAqzGUWBx5Uq60c5h0apqJLSdmQ7hGA/edit>

Next Call: September 22, 2021 at 1:00pm PT / 4:00pm ET. Please note the new recurring meeting invite. We'll be moving to the 4th Wednesday of the month at 1:00pm PT / 4:00pm ET.
